THE DISABILITY
HOUSING CENTRE
"One Team - One Goal"

Available Now for High Physical Support, Fully Accessible and Improved Liveability tenants 3 bedroom home with an additional 1 spare room (i.e. 2nd living/media room) to use for visiting family with 2 car garage, High Physical Support home + carer studio in Lawnton, Queensland. This home is in a great location with easy access to shops and medical services. There are two female tenants currently in this home, one is 64 years old and one 63. The 64 year old has a light-hearted and engaging personality. She enjoys social interactions and values her appearance and cleanliness. She enjoys pleasant scents and finds joy in finishing her routine with a spritz of perfume. Her hobbies include reading (with assistance), walking, and outdoor activities. She likes competitive and clever games, nature, cooking (with help), helping others and good food and music (especially The Seekers with Judith Durham). The 63 year old enjoys a variety of activities including immersing herself in game shows, cooking shows, and local drama series, often spending her leisure time watching TV. Her family, especially her grandchildren, are a significant part of her life, and she cherishes every moment with them. Music is another passion of hers, with a particular fondness for the soothing tunes of Tony O'Connor. She also treasures her pet bird and finds comfort and happiness in its company.
